Whether you have a lot of products, or just need a little bit of space, we put together a floor plan that will accommodate your needs, both in size and price! Need a custom booth size? We also can provide several options to suit your companies display needs - from gross footage, raised platforms and much more.

NEW BI-ANNUAL FORMAT PROVIDES BETTER VALUE!

Order Deadline August 10, Ad Copy August 15, 2011

The Body Soul & Spirit Magazine was launched April 1, 2010 and is distributed to up to 45,000 readers before the expo as well as passed out at the front door to everyone attending.

We've found publishing a bi-annually edition just prior to our spring and fall expo tours far more effective and economical for our advertisers than our previous quarterly format.

Well we continue to use other distribution solutions, we've found our Spring/Summer and Fall/Winter Editions which include distribution before, during as well as after our events.

We also include an expo insert that is printed just days before each expo allowing us to provide the latest schedule of lectures and a basic exhibitor list - the Body Soul & Spirit Magazine is not only one of your best promotional values for raising awareness of your presence at the expo - but with a six month "life span" it is also effective way to secure additional exposure, customers and clients long after the expo is over!
